. This is a Chamber summons for amending the plaint as per schedule. According to the Advocate for the plaintiffs, suit is filed for an injunction against disturbing the plaintiff's use and occupation of various premises. It is contended that the plaintiff has acquired 2 more premises requiring present amendment. Amongst the defendants, all are served but only defendant no.1 is represented. There is no objection for allowing this Chamber summons. Hence, Chamber summons is made absolute in terms of prayer clause-(a). However, it is made clear that merely because amendment is allowed, interim relief is not extended in respect of premises which are now sought to be added. There will be however, liberty to apply for interim relief in respect of these premises. Chamber summons stands disposed off.
